

Bluff Area COVID-19 Community Aid Request Form

In response to COVID-19, we're organizing mutual aid to respond to those that are often not included in conversations about public health in the southern section of San Juan County, Utah. This includes Disabled, Houseless, Immunocompromised and Marginalized communities with greater risk and lesser access to help.

We want to know what you need so we can ask for it from folks who might have it!
>> Individuals in need can call (505) 333-4504 and use the following to answer the questions during your phone conversation or go to the link provided to complete the form.
